FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION.

FIFTH ANNUAL K.E. NORRIS MEMORIAL LECTURES

TO BE HELD NOV. 29TH, NOV. 30TH, & DEC. 1ST, 1965.

Maurice Gold, C.A., Chairman, K.E. Norris Memorial Lectures Committee, has announced that Dr. Frederick M. Watkins, world renowned political philosopher and Professor of Political Theory, Yale University, will deliver this year's Lectures on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings, November 29th, November 30th and December 1st, 1965, respectively.

Dr. Watkins is a recognized authority on the ideological problems of the modern world. From 1946 to 1952 he was Bronfman Professor and Chairman of the Department of Political Science, McGill University. In 1952 he joined the faculty at Yale. Prof. Watkins is the author of several books including "The Age of Ideology: Political Thought, 1750 to the Present".

The K.E. Norris Memorial Lectures were established in 1961 by the Association of Alumni, in conjunction with the Board of Governors, University Council and Student Societies, to bring to the University outstanding intellectuals who have contributed greatly to the intellectual climate of our times. The University community is thus able to hear them expound their views and ideas, at first hand.

Previous Lecturers have included Dr. Harry G. Johnson, Professor of Economics, University of Chicago; Dr. Otto Klineberg, Professor of Social Psychology, University of Paris and Professor Emeritus, Columbia University; Dr. H. Northrop Frye, Principal, Victoria College, University of Toronto; and the Right Honorable Louis S. St. Laurent who inaugurated the annual lectures in 1961.

Admission to the Watkins Lectures will be by tickets only, which are obtained "free of charge" from the Alumni Office.

From the Office of: Trefflé Lacombe,
Assistant to the Principal.
